

*A Holy Hour For Life, Forgiveness, and Healing
during the Jubilee Year of Mercy*

"...that I should not lose anything of what he gave me..." John 6:39

Boston Deacons for Life in Pro Life Office—Archdiocese of Boston

"God's mercy can make even the driest land become a garden, can restore life to dry bones.... Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of his love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish." (Pope Francis, Easter 2013)

OPENING SONG AND EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT:

The opening song is concluded and a period of silent prayer follows.

OPENING PRAYER

God our loving Father,
you alone are the Creator and Author of all human life.
We come before you with our prayers for life, forgiveness, and healing.
We pray for the protection of every human being,
wisdom to those who govern us,
and compassion for those who work to defend human life.
During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, graciously pour out many graces upon your Church.
Grant your forgiveness and healing to all those involved in abortion.
In the Eucharistic presence of your Son, the Light of the World, scatter the darkness of sin and help us to love you and our neighbor with all our hearts.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the conclusion of the opening prayer, a period of silence follows.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah 49:1-6

Hear me, coastlands, listen, distant peoples.
Before birth the LORD called me,
from my mother's womb he gave me my name.
He made my mouth like a sharp-edged sword,
concealed me, shielded by his hand.
He made me a sharpened arrow, in his quiver he hid me.
He said to me, you are my servant, in you, Israel, I show my glory.
Though I thought I had toiled in vain,
for nothing and for naught spent my strength,
yet my right is with the LORD, my recompense is with my God.
For now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him;
I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength!
It is too little, he says, for you to be my servant,
to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel;
I will make you a light to the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139: 1b-3, 13-14b, 23-24 LFM 440

R. Guide me Lord, along the everlasting way.

O Lord, you have probed me and you know me;
You know when I sit and when I stand;
You understand my thoughts from afar.
My journeys and my rest you scrutinize,
With all my ways you are familiar.

R. Guide me Lord, along the everlasting way.

Truly you have formed my inmost being;
You knit me in my mother's womb.
I give you thanks that I am fearfully, wonderfully made;
wonderful are your works.

R. Guide me Lord, along the everlasting way.

Probe me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me, and know my thoughts;
See if my way is crooked, And lead me in the way of old.

R. Guide me Lord, along the everlasting way.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

R. Alleluia, alleluia. Jn 6:39

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

(John 6:35-40)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to the crowds:

"I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger,
and whoever believes in me will never thirst.
But I told you that although you have seen me, you do not believe.
Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day."

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

*After the Gospel, a brief homily may be offered.
(Please note: these words should be carefully chosen so as to reflect the tender compassion of God and the generous mercy of Jesus Christ.)*

A period of silence follows for personal prayer and adoration.

Presider: With longing for the coming of the Kingdom, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

BENEDICTION

At the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, the presider goes to the altar, genuflects, and then kneels. As he kneels he prays:

Presider:

Look down, O Lord, from your heavenly throne,
and illumine this night with your celestial brightness;
that by night as by day, your people may glorify your holy Name;
through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

HYMN: TANTUM ERGO

The Eucharist is incensed with three triple swings.

Tantum ergo Sacramentum
Veneremur cernui:
Et antiquum documentum
Novo cedat ritui:
Praestet fides supplementum
Sensuum defectui

Genitori, Genitoque
Laus et iubilatio
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio:
Procedenti ab utroque
Compar sit laudatio

or:

Down in adoration falling,
This great Sacrament we hail:
Over ancient forms of worship
Newer rites of grace prevail:
Faith will tell us Christ is present,
When our human senses fail.

To the Everlasting Father,
And the Son, who made us free,
And the Spirit, God proceeding
From them each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might and endless majesty.

Presider:

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist
as the memorial of your suffering and death.
May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom where you live with the Father and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
