1060 AM Enables Catholics to Still Live Their Faith Listen to the Mass and Other Catholic Programs 24/7

BOSTON, MA – While Masses are suspended throughout the Catholic Diocese, Catholics can listen to Masses broadcast on The Station of the Cross Catholic Radio Network (1060 AM) each day at 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. On weekdays, the station also rebroadcasts the Mass from Boston Catholic Television’s Chapel of the Holy Cross at 9 p.m.

In addition to the daily Mass, a Holy Hour consisting of the Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, and Divine Mercy Chaplet is broadcast daily at 3 p.m. Other featured shows include Sermons for Everyday Living at 6 a.m., Mother Miriam Live at 10 a.m., The Terry and Jesse Show at 2 p.m., and The Catholic Current at 5 p.m. All times are Eastern.

Listeners can also hear a variety of other Catholic programs 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.

“We are glad that we can be a great resource for Catholics during this difficult time,” said Jim Wright, president of The Station of the Cross. “With the suspension of Mass and Church activities, our network can help Catholics stay connected to God, which is important both for their peace of mind and continued spiritual nourishment.

In addition to building faith and guiding people to the Truth, the station’s programs are addressing the current issues, giving both practical and spiritual advice, and providing solace to all those in need.

“The Station of the Cross is the best resource for continuing to practice and grow in your Faith in the midst of this crisis,” said Wright. “Many people are grateful to learn that Catholic Radio is a resource that is available to them and I encourage all Catholics to let others know about our programs.”

The station’s programs can be heard anywhere in the world at thestationofthecross.com and on the iCatholicRadio mobile app, a free download. The app has more than 300,000 downloads across 122 countries.

Additionally, the iCatholicMusic app broadcasts high quality music by top Catholic artists, a great way to find peace of mind in a chaotic world.
