MISSION: Cathedral High School, Inc. is a Catholic high school serving Boston and surrounding communities. Cathedral High School is an urban, co-educational school where students, faculty and staff form a learning community. Through our admission policy, we are committed to the mission of the Catholic Church to serve all people. Cathedral High School welcomes people of diverse ethnic, economic and faith backgrounds as well as students who reflect a broad spectrum of skills and achievement. A Cathedral High school education responds to each student’s potential for learning and growth. The Cathedral High School community believes that teachers and students should be committed to academic excellence. Graduates of Cathedral High School will be intellectually competent, open to growth, self-disciplined, motivated and responsible for their continued development. As a people of faith, the Cathedral High School community is called to strengthen the shared Gospel values of all members. Cathedral High School provides opportunities to know God’s presence and activity in daily life through various religious and spiritual experiences. Cathedral High School’s purpose is to graduate a person of faith, a morally and socially responsible citizen, and a life-long independent learner.

DESCRIPTION: Cathedral High School is a four-year high school with an enrollment of approximately 250 students. At the end of the academic year, Cathedral high School awards approximately 70 diplomas. 95% or more of the graduating class attend college.
