MISSION: Cardinal Spellman High School is a Catholic, Co-educational college-preparatory school of the Archdiocese of Boston. Cardinal Spellman High School is dedicated to providing opportunities for our students to maximize their potential within a Catholic environment. A Spellman education strives to prepare our young men and women to achieve academic success, to embrace Gospel values, to respect themselves and others and to be of service to their community, to their Church and to the world.

DESCRIPTION: Cardinal Spellman High School currently has an enrollment of over 650 young men and women from approximately 30 Cities and towns in and beyond the Brockton and Metro South area. Over 96% of Spellman graduates attend colleges and universities across the nation. In addition to its academic activities and programs, Spellman offers an integrated Christian service program as well as varied opportunities for students' spiritual growth and development. In addition, participation in extra-curricular activities and athletics offers all students the opportunity to experience teamwork and leadership.
