MISSION: Lowell Catholic challenges its students to:

- Excel academically and hold learning in high esteem
- Prepare for productive lives in their future communities
- Embrace Jesus' message to love God, our neighbors and ourselves
- Our Philosophy of Action To carry out our Mission, Lowell Catholic promotes:
- An active and informed personal discipline and the honorable character to which this leads
- Respect for all of the many cultures from which our community's families come
- Independent thinking, effective communication, skillful individual and cooperative work, a safe physical and social environment, teaching that is intellectually sound, fair, and personally engaged, and productive relations with our students' families
- Commitment to useful service to the Lowell Catholic community and to the larger communities of which it is a part, for we believe that to serve is to continue Christ's unfinished mission
- An appreciation of Catholic ideals and the values of human dignity, personal responsibility, the importance of family, informed citizenship and conscientious moral decision-making

DESCRIPTION: Lowell Catholic High School, a co-educational college preparatory school within the Archdiocese of Boston, provides a challenging Catholic secondary education to students having diverse academic, social, cultural and economic backgrounds.
