DESCRIPTION: The original Trust was established in December of 1962 to provide life insurance benefits to the employees of the Archdiocese of Boston. It was expanded in 1990 to add long-term disability benefits to the Trust. Currently, the Trust contracts with Unum Provident on an insured basis to provide life insurance and long-term disability benefits. There are 3,900 members enrolled in the life insurance and AD&D plan and 3,700 members enrolled in the long-term disability plan. The members are employees of the parishes, parish schools, central administration, the seminaries, the Cemetery Association and BCTV as well as other participating Catholic institutions within the Archdiocese of Boston.
