DESCRIPTION: The Trust was established in 1963 to provide pension benefits for the employees of the Archdiocese of Boston and its affiliates. It was a contributory plan until 1971. At that time it became fully employer paid. The RCAB Pension Plan and Trust is a defined benefit plan. There are approximately 4,500 active employees enrolled in the plan, 2,300 retirees and 4,100 former employees who are vested and will collect a benefit at retirement age. The members are employees of the parishes, parish schools, central administration, the seminaries, Cemetery Association and BCTV as well as other participating Catholic institutions within the Archdiocese of Boston.
