

ENTITY: The Office of Outreach, Assistance, Education and Prevention of the Archdiocese of Boston, Inc.

INCORPORATED: July 22, 2003

TRUSTEES: Very Reverend Richard M. Erikson
Rev. John J. Connolly, Jr.
James P. McDonough

OFFICERS: Chairman – Sean Cardinal O’Malley, OFM Cap
Treasurer – Sean Cardinal O’Malley, OFM Cap
President – Rev. John J. Connolly, Jr.
Clerk – James P. McDonough

MISSION: To provide pastoral, clinical and social services and spiritual guidance to persons affected by physical, material, emotional, psychological or sexual abuse, its aftermath and consequences, and broad based education and training of Archdiocesan clergy, staff, volunteers and children geared towards the protection and safety of children; and to administer a program of Criminal Offender Record Information (“CORI) checks for priests, deacons, lay employees and volunteers of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston and the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston, a Corporation Sole; and to exclusively perform religious and charitable activities in support of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston and the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston, a Corporation Sole.