

Sunday, December 2nd - Archdiocese Bicentennial Celebration Begins

WHAT: Opening mass - the bicentennial celebration for the Archdiocese of Boston

WHEN: Sunday, December 2, 2007

TIME: 2:00 PM WHERE: Cathedral of the Holy Cross 1400 Washington Street, Boston, MA

WHO: Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley Priests, Religious and Deacons of the Archdiocese Parishioners from the Archdiocese Ethnic communities of the Archdiocese

INFO: The bicentennial celebration will be observed over the next twelve months concluding with a closing liturgy on Sunday, November 23, 2008 at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. The centerpiece of the yearlong celebration will be a comprehensive process of spiritual renewal. This process, now underway, is being offered by RE-NEW International and is entitled ARISE: Together in Christ.

Events, talks and liturgical celebrations will take place during the course of the year. For information on the entire celebration please visit www.boston200.org.

CatholicTV will broadcast the opening mass this Sunday at 2pm. It will be available on its cable channel and online at www.CatholicTV.com. CatholicTV can be seen on cable systems in more than 175 communities in Eastern Massachusetts including Comcast channel 56 (except in Boston and Brookline on channel 45); RCN channel 68 (analog) and 85 (digital); and former Adelphia now Comcast channel 98. Internet users can tune in all of CatholicTV's programming via the station's home page, www.catholictv.com by clicking WATCH LIVE.

For more information, visit the web site or call CatholicTV at (617) 965-0050.

Copyright © 2007 Archdiocese of Boston; all rights reserved