

August 8, 2002 Statement of Donna M. Morrissey, Spokeswoman, Archdiocese of Boston Concerning Father Hurley

The Archdiocese of Boston is continuing to cooperate with civil authorities in their investigation regarding Father Paul W. Hurley who was ordained in 1970. Father Hurley is on administrative leave and does not hold any assignment in the Archdiocese of Boston and is restricted from practicing any public ministry.

The Archdiocese of Boston continues to extend prayers and support to all those who have suffered the effects of sexual abuse.
