

January 21, 2004 - Catholic Defense of Marriage Meetings

All meetings are scheduled for 7:00pm- 8:00pm. These meetings are organized to assist all members of the faithful to participate in the efforts being made to defend marriage in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Meetings are offered in each vicariate of the Archdiocese. Our voice as Catholics must be heard concerning the Marriage Affirmation and Protection Amendment. As Catholics and as citizens we are responsible for participating in the decisions made in our society. All Catholics are encouraged to attend one of these meetings. Please join us!"

Sample Bulletin Announcements for January 24, 25

Your voice must be heard concerning the Marriage Affirmation and Protection Amendment! As Catholics and as citizens we are responsible for participating in the decisions made in our society. To assist you to understand Catholic doctrine on marriage and the importance of the vote to be held in the legislature on February 11, meetings have been organized throughout the Archdiocese over the next 10 days. All Catholics are strongly encouraged to attend one of these meetings. The closest meetings to our parish are at _____, on _____, from 7 to 8 p.m. For a listing of all the other meetings, see the archdiocesan website at www.rcab.org.
