

September 24, 2004 - Statement of Bishop Richard Lennon regarding the resignation of Fr. Christopher Coyne. Archbishop Sean O'Malley, OFM Cap. has accepted the resignation offered by Father Christopher J. Coyne, Cabinet Secretary for the Office of Public Relations and spokesman for the Archdiocese of Boston. Fr. Coyne will be returning to full-time work at St. John's Seminary as a Professor of Liturgy and Homiletics. Archbishop Sean and I are most grateful to Father Coyne for his generous and able work in this area of Church life for these two years while also attending to his seminary responsibilities.
