

January 25, 2006 - Archdiocese Statement on Financial Transparency

“The Archbishop remains committed to financial transparency and to providing full and complete information about the Archdiocese’s financial condition to the people of the Archdiocese. Through the presentation of comprehensive financial disclosures, which are planned this spring and on an annual basis going forward, the Archbishop seeks to carry out his commitment to financial transparency and to help rebuild the public’s trust in the Church.”

Copyright © 2004-2006 Archdiocese of Boston; all rights reserved