

February 28, 2006 - Attendance at the Consistory at the End of March

At the request of Cardinal-Designate Seán P. O'Malley, OFM Cap., there will be no Archdiocesan-wide organized trip to the Consistory in Rome at the end of March.

We anticipate that there will be a reception following the Consistory, when those who will be in Rome will be able to greet and congratulate His Eminence. Plans for such an event are being explored at this time.

Those who complete their own travel and accommodation plans for attending the Consistory, and wish to receive information regarding any planned events, including the ceremony itself and the reception, should send a written request to the address below no later than Wednesday 8 March 2006. The request should include your name, mailing address, telephone number, and the number of people in your party, and information will be sent to you as we receive it.

Please send the request to:

Secretary for Pastoral Services
Archdiocese of Boston
2121 Commonwealth Avenue
Brighton, MA 02135-3193

Cardinal-Designate O'Malley is grateful for your understanding of his wishes as stated above and, in a spirit of charity, asks for "the prayerful support of the people of Boston as I assume this important role in the life of the Church."
