

June 20, 2006 - Father Richard Erikson To Be Guest On “This Is The Day”

Archdiocese’s new Vicar General to make first TV appearance on BCTV at 10:30 a.m. Friday June 23

NEWTON, MA – Every Tuesday and Friday morning at 10:30, Father Robert Reed and Jay Fadden host Boston Catholic Television’s live talk show “This Is The Day”. During this half-hour the hosts provide light banter on various topics and a segment responding to viewers’ letters and email is featured. Frequent guests from Catholic TV hosts to national authors to archdiocesan officials are interviewed to keep viewers informed about the latest events on our station, the church and their Archdiocese. Kevin Nelson also provides live updates on Vatican and national news.

On Friday, June 23 at 10:30 a.m., Father Richard Erikson, the Archdiocese of Boston’s new Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia will be the featured guest. He will be interviewed at the end of his first week in his new position in the Archdiocese, which began Monday, June 19. Father Erikson had been serving as an Air Force Chaplain for the past seven years. Prior to his Air Force service, he had been a regular face on BCTV, celebrating TV Masses and hosting a series, “Day By Day”, but this will be the first time he has been interviewed on television since being appointed to his new position by Sean Cardinal O’Malley. Rebroadcasts of Friday’s live show will be rebroadcast at 6pm that evening and again on Saturday at 6pm and Sunday at 6:30pm.

Directed by Father Robert Reed, BCTV is Catholic Television For You! The station broadcasts 24 hours a day and can be seen in more than 175 communities in Eastern Massachusetts. BCTV is carried by Comcast on cable channel 56 on most of its systems, by RCN on Channel 86 and Adelphia in some areas on cable channel 98. Viewers can also see the station’s Online Broadcast at www.catholictv.org.
