

September 9 , 2006 -Cardinal Ordains 16 Men to the Order of Deacon

Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley will ordain 16 men to the Diaconate at a Mass of Ordination at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross on Saturday, September 9, 2006. The following are the men being ordained:

- John A. Brent (Norwood, MA)
- Francis B. Dello Russo (Stoneham, MA)
- Paul A. Dow (Lynn, MA)
- George M. Gabriel (Middleboro, MA)
- James F. Greer (Plymouth, MA)
- Martin W. Henry (Pembroke, MA)
- John A. Hulme (Duxbury, MA)
- A. James Hwang (Concord, MA)
- Paul A. Lewis (Quincy, MA)
- William F. Maloney (Quincy, MA)
- Daniel C. Nelson (Dover, MA)
- Hon H. Nguyen (Wilmington, MA)
- Christopher P. Reilly (Scituate, MA)
- Carl M. Roberts, Jr. (Topsfield, MA)
- Richard Siebert, Sr. (Byfield, MA)
- Guy C. St. Sauveur (Bedford, MA)
- Deacon John A. Brent

A member of St. Catherine of Siena Parish in Norwood where he has served as a lector, extraordinary minister of Holy Communion and as a member of the finance council and parish worship committee, he is married to Phyllis, who has also been active in parish life. They are the parents of three children: Andrew, Lauren and Daniel. An alumnus of Boston College where received BS in accounting in 1971, he served in the US Army and is currently vice president for financial reporting at BJ's Wholesale Club where he has worked for 26 years. He is the son of John and the late Fernanda Brent.

Deacon Francis B. Dello Russo

A Stoneham resident and a member of St. Patrick Parish, he has been married to his wife Catherine since 1989 and they are the parents of two daughters: Regina and Emily. At St. Patrick's he has been involved in the Marriage Preparation Program and has served as Lectors and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. He is the son of Geno, his mother Nancy died this year. He received his BA from Southeastern Massachusetts University (now U Mass-Dartmouth) in 1977 and for the past 29 years he has worked for the U.S. District Court as Property and Procurement Manager.

Deacon Paul A. Dow

He and his wife Maureen (Curley), whom he married in 1969, are parishioners at Our Lady of the Assumption parish in Lynnfield; both were once parishioners at St. Mary parish in Georgetown and are the parents of Scott and Kelly. He is the son of the late George and Edith (Flynn) Dow. He was graduated from Lynn Trade High School, attended the Lay Ministry Training and OSHA Training. He has served in parish ministries as director of RCIA, Religious Education and Marriage Preparation Program and as a lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. For the past 37 years he has been employed at the Lynn Assembly and Test Plant of General Electric Company.

Deacon George M. Gabriel

He has been married to his wife Mary since 1970 and they are the parents of Thomas and Marie Gonzalez and is the son of the late George and Marie (Zion) Gabriel. He and his wife are parishioners at Sacred Heart Parish in Middleborough where they have been active in various parish ministries including marriage preparation and ministry of care; lector, extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, member of the Parish Pastoral Council and pastoral minister at Jordan Hospital, Plymouth. An alumnus of U Mass-Boston where he received a degree in microbiology, he also served in the US Marine Corps. He has been employed by the Federal Aviation Administration for 18 years and is a commercial airline and helicopter pilot.

Deacon James F. Greer

He and his wife Theresa are members of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha Parish, Plymouth. They have been married for 23 years and are the parents of two sons: Joshua and Kristopher. At their parish they have been involved in marriage preparation, parish pastoral council, parish youth ministry, RCIA, and as lectors and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. His parents are James and Pauline Greer and he is an alumnus of St. Joseph College having received BS in Healthcare Administration. He served in the US Coast Guard for 21 years as Health Services Technician and has for the past nine years been Operations Coordinator at Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center.

Deacon Martin Henry

A native of County Mayo in Ireland he attended school first at Ballinacfad and was graduated from Norwood High School. His parents, Martin and Nora Henry are both deceased. He has been married to his wife Mary since 1976 and they are the parents of Marty and Erin. He is a member of St. Joseph the Worker Parish in Hanson and has served there as lector, extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, and member of the parish worship commission. For more than 23 years he has been a self employed Irish and Catholic musician.

Deacon John Hulme

He has been married to his wife Pamela since 1976 and they are parishioners of Holy Family Parish in Duxbury. He is the son of Anna Hulme and the late John Hulme. A self-employed consultant in Information Technology at JAH Consulting Services, Inc for the past 19 years he is an alumnus of Bentley College graduated with the BS in Management. He has two advanced degrees an MBA from Suffolk University and MS in accounting from Bentley College. He has been active in parish life serving as lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, and the Confirmation Preparation Program; outside the parish he has been involved at St. Francis House, Boston and Father Bill's Place in Quincy.

Deacon Augustine J. Hwang

An active member of St. Paul Parish in Cambridge, Augustine and his wife of 21 years Seraphina are the parents of three daughters: Elizabeth, Kristen and Clare. At the parish Augustine has served as a lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. His parents are Yak Hwang and Sang Jung. He is a 1999 graduate of the Law School at Boston University. He serves as a trustee of the Korean Catholic Foundation of America and since 2004 he has been the director of the Institute of Human Rights of which he is also the founder.

Deacon Paul A. Lewis

A parishioner of Holy Trinity Parish in Quincy, he is married to his wife of 39 years, Mary Ellen (Petrona) Lewis. They are the parents of six children: Paul, Maureen Nunley, Christopher, John, Timothy and Meaghan. They also have eight grandchildren. Paul has been the Treasurer and President of the Holy Name Society, Chairman of the Parish Spiritual Development Committee and member of the Parish Pastoral Council, he has also served as lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. He is the son of the late Wilbur and Mary (Butler) Lewis and was graduated from Curry College with a BA in economics. He retired after 30 years of service from the City of Boston and Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Deacon William F. Maloney

A practicing attorney in Quincy, William is married to his wife of 23 years, Elizabeth and they are the parents of four daughters: Paula, Carolyn, Caitlin and Jillian. He is the son of Vincent and Katherine Maloney, both deceased. He has been active in various parish ministries at Holy Trinity Parish in Quincy singing in the parish choir, teaching in the religious education program and assisting with fundraising. He has also served as lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. He obtained his BA degree from Boston University and his law degree from Suffolk University Law School.

Deacon Daniel C. Nelson

Daniel and his wife Nancy to whom he has been married since 1978 are parishioners of Most Precious Blood Parish in Dover. They are the parents of four sons: Christopher, Peter, Matthew, and David; and one daughter Kathleen. He is the son of Teresa Nelson and the late Earl Nelson. He served in the United States Navy. He obtained the BSBA from Roosevelt University and an MBA from the University of Chicago. He was also granted an MA from Boston College and has completed other pastoral and theological formation at Weston Jesuit School of Theology, Cambridge. He is a retired vice president of CVS Corporation.

Deacon Hon H. Nguyen

Hon has been married to his wife Bachhuong since 1975. They are the parents of three children: Minhhuong, Hung and Martino-Huy. Hon and his wife are both natives of Vietnam. Hon served in the army of South Vietnam and at the end of the Vietnam War was interned in a concentration camp for three years before coming to the United States. Both of his parents are deceased. At St. Ambrose Parish in Dorchester he has been involved in the Parish Pastoral Council and the Parish Finance Council. His wife has been part of the religious education program in the parish. Hon attended Wentworth Institute and received the BSEE in 1986. He has been employed as an engineer at Sun Micro Systems, Digital Equipment and Teradyne.

Deacon Christopher P. Reilly

Christopher has been married to his wife Christina since 1989. They are the parents of three children: Megan, Daniel and Ryan. He is the son of James Reilly and the late Phyllis. He was graduated from the College of the Holy Cross with a BA in physics. He is presently employed as area vice president with Equity Residential. At his parish, St. Mary of the Nativity, Scituate he has been involved with the Marriage Preparation Program and as extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, as well as teaching in the religious education program, both third grade and Confirmation Preparation.

Deacon Carl M. Roberts

Since 1968 he has been married to his wife Corinne and they are the parents of Michael, Matthew and Leslie. They have three grandchildren. Carl is the son of Carl and Regina Roberts and attended New York's Rensselaer Polytech and Northeastern University studying mechanical engineering. For the past 25 years he has been engineering director at Analog Devices, Inc. At his parish, St. Rose of Lima, Topsfield he has been lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, taught in the parish religious education program participated and led parish retreats and Cursillo as well.

Deacon Richard Siebert

A trooper with the Massachusetts State Police Department assigned to the Turnpike Motorcycle Unit he has been married to his wife Claire since 1983 and they have they have seven children: Richard, Diana, Laura, Kerry, Erik, Kristen and Rachael. He is the son of Eileen (Fitzgerald) and the late Robert Siebert. After graduating from Chelmsford High School he served in the United States Navy for three years, in Illinois and California and Vietnam. He received a BS and Ms in criminal justice, both from Western New England College. He has been active as lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, the Marriage Preparation Program and Cursillo at Immaculate Conception Parish, Newburyport.

Deacon Guy Saint Sauveur

An active member of St. Michael Parish in Bedford where he has been lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, member of the Right to Life Committee and the Knights of Columbus and teacher in the religious education program, Guy is married to his wife of 34 years Sheila. They are the parents of four children: Julie Beau; Jennifer Dandurand; Jonathan and Jeffrey currently with the United States Air Force at Aviano Air Base in Italy. He has Bachelor of Business Administration and MS in Business degree and served for more than 22 years in the United States Air Force. He is the Division chief in advance Systems and Technology at Hansom Air Force Base, Bedford.

Copyright © 2004-2005 Archdiocese of Boston; all rights reserved