

December 2 , 2007 - Statement Following End to Sen. Clinton NH Headquarters Hostage Situation

“The Archdiocese has a long-standing policy and commitment to keep confidential any personal information relating to survivors of clergy sexual abuse. As such, we would not comment on any survivor or person named as a survivor. Our prayers go out to all those involved in Friday’s incident. We share in the relief felt by the entire community that this situation ended peacefully without any person being harmed.”
