

March 4, 2008 - Wall Street Journal and best-selling author Peggy Noonan To Visit Cathedral Grammar School

WHAT:

In advance of The Inner-City Scholarship Fund's (ICSF) 18th Annual Dinner Celebration, Peggy Noonan, columnist for the Wall Street Journal and best-selling author, will visit Cathedral Grammar School to visit with students, teachers and staff.

Cathedral Grammar School currently serves 209 students from the City of Boston, of whom 63% are non-Catholic and 55% are below the poverty level. The Inner City Scholarship Fund provides over $125,000 a year in support to these students.

Later that evening over 800 supporters of the Inner-City Scholarship Fund are expected to attend ICSF's annual dinner at the Boston Marriott Copley.

WHEN:

Wednesday, March 5, 2008, 1:00 p.m

WHERE:

Cathedral Grammar School, 595 Harrison Avenue, Boston, MA 02118

WHY:

Since 1991, the Foundation's Inner-City Scholarship Fund (ICSF) has raised more than $59 million to benefit some 68,000 disadvantaged students in 58 inner-city schools.

Media is welcome

Copyright © 2004-2008 Archdiocese of Boston; all rights reserved