PREPARATION

· Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.

· At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.

· A musician and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions are included herein.)

· A Bible or Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.

· Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo. The appropriate number of candles should be lit on the Advent Wreath.

· Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.

· For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Christ our Lord.

For all the oracles of the prophets foretold him,
the Virgin Mother longed for him
with love beyond all telling,
John the Baptist sang of his coming and proclaimed his presence when he came.

It is by his gift that we already rejoice
at the mystery of his Nativity,
so that he might find us watchful in prayer and exultant in his praise...

GREETING

Presider: Grace, mercy, and peace be with you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

All: And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

Presider: In these or similar words...

Brothers and sisters,
We gather here tonight [today] because we are conscious of our sinfulness. We are sinners. But we also gather here with the confidence that our God is a merciful God. He has given us this sacrament of Reconciliation in order that we might experience that mercy through the ministry of the Church.

As you may know, Pope Francis has declared a “Year of Mercy.” In the next twelve months, he has asked us to contemplate more deeply on the mystery of God’s abundant mercy – “the bridge that connects God and man, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness” (Misericordiae Vultus, 2).

Jesus Christ is the face of the Father’s mercy. In this Advent season—during which we prepare to celebrate his coming to earth and as we anticipate the time when he will come again -- let us better appreciate the salvation which his Death and Resurrection has won for us. Let us reflect more deeply on his Gospel of compassion and mercy. And may we, his disciples, bring that message of mercy and reconciliation to a world in need of it.
OPENING PRAYER

Presider: My brothers and sisters,
We look forward to celebrating the mystery of Christ’s incarnation.
Let us pray that when he comes again,
he may find us awake and ready to receive him.

Silent prayer

Almighty and merciful God,
you have brought us together in the name of your Son to receive your mercy and grace in our time of need.
Open our eyes to see the evil we have done.
Touch our hearts and convert us to yourself.
Where sin has divided and scattered,
may your love make us one again;
where sin has brought weakness,
may your power heal and strengthen;
where sin has brought death,
may your Spirit raise us to new life.

Give us a heart to love you,
so that our lives may reflect the image of your Son.
May the world see the glory of Christ
revealed in your Church,
and come to know that he is the One whom you have sent,
Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.

All: Amen.

Stir up your power, O Lord,
and come to our help with mighty strength, that what our sins may impede
the grace of your mercy may hasten.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect
Thursday of the First Week of Advent
The following are suggested readings. Alternative readings may be selected. The preacher may wish to use one, two, or three readings. If only one is chosen, it is preferable that it be the gospel.

The readings are printed elsewhere in this booklet, for ease of rehearsal. A Lectionary or Bible should be used during the liturgy.

FIRST READING
Isaiah 55:9-11
...turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Psalm 100: 1b-2, 3, 4, 5
The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is forever.

SECOND READING
Romans 8:31b-39
What will separate us from the love of Christ?

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Verse: Come, O Lord, do not delay; forgive the sins of your people.

GOSPEL
Luke 7:36-50
Her many sins have been forgiven: hence she has shown great love.

HOMILY
On December 22, 2014 Pope Francis met with the behind-the-scenes Vatican employees. After thanking them for their dedication, he encouraged them to examine areas of their lives. The following words are adapted from his remarks.

“Care for your spiritual life, your relationship with God.”
- Am I a Christian who is not nourished by prayer and the sacraments?
- Do I study the Word of God?

“Care for your family life…”
- Do I give my family time, attention, and love?
- Do I care for their daily needs?

“Heal the wounds of the heart with the oil of forgiveness…”
- Have I forgiven others who have hurt me?
- Have I said “I’m sorry” to those whom I have hurt and have I tried to make amends?

“Watch how you speak…”
- Do I need to purify my everyday language from offensive words, vulgarities, and phrases used in the worldly decadence?
- Do I gossip about others or tell false truths?

“Care for your work…”
- Do I work with enthusiasm and passion?
- Am I humble enough to thank the Lord for my accomplishments?
- Do I use my God-given skills and talents in the service of others?

“Avoid envy, lust, hatred, and negative feelings…”
- Are my thoughts and actions destructive toward my relationships, especially with those whom I love?
- Do my thoughts destroy my inner peace?
- Do I say insulting things when it would be better to remain silent?
- Do I surround myself with angry or destructive people?

“Reach out to those who need you… this is how you will be judged.”
- Do I assist the weak, the elderly, the sick?
- Do I stand up for foreigners or for those who are oppressed?
- Do I feed the hungry and shelter the homeless?

“Let go of…”
- “The bitterness that brings us to revenge”
- “The laziness that leads to existential euthanasia”
- “The finger-pointing that leads to pride”
- “The complaining that leads to despair”
The assembly is now invited to make an examination of conscience. This can be done in silence or by using the examination below. Two readers might alternate. Allow a brief period of silence between each question or phrase.

Presider: The following examination of conscience is based upon the Confiteor. Please reflect quietly as each part is read.

I CONFESSION TO ALMIGHTY GOD
- Do I sincerely want to be set free from sin and turn again to God?
- Do I seek a deeper relationship with God in this sacrament of reconciliation?

AND TO YOU MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS
- Do I have a genuine love for my family and friends, neighbors and co-workers, or fellow students?
- Have I contributed to the well being and happiness of others at home?
- Am I aware of my global relationship to those suffering and dying in other parts of the world?
- Am I committed to seek peace and promote justice for every person?

THAT I HAVE SINNED THROUGH MY OWN FAULT
- Do I blame others for my wrongdoing or for the misfortune that befalls me?
- Do I accept responsibility for the commitments I have made to others – my spouse? my parents? my children? my parish?
- Do I accept that society’s evils are within my power to change?

IN MY THOUGHT AND IN MY WORDS
- Have ever harbored ill thoughts against another person?
- Have my addictions affected my judgment or behavior?
- Have my fears or prejudices prevented me from speaking out on behalf of the poor, the unborn, or people of other races?
- Have my words caused others hurt? Has my silence caused others harm?

IN WHAT I HAVE DONE
- Do I seek to be the center of attention? Have I imposed my will on others without respecting their needs or freedoms?
- Am I focused on my needs to the detriment of the needs of others?
- Am I obsessed with having the perfect body, making more money, or having the latest technology?
- Do I need to be in control of all people and all situations?
- Do I work more than is healthy for my mind or body?
IN WHAT I HAVE FAILED TO DO
- Have I neglected by responsibilities to my family?
- Have I neglected my health?
- Have I neglected my prayer life?
- Do I use the earth’s resources wisely?

AND I ASK BLESSED MARY, EVER VIRGIN AND ALL THE SAINTS
- Do I appreciate the great gift of the Eucharist?
- Do I worship with my Community each Sunday?
- Do I reflect often on what God is calling me to do?

AND YOU MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS
- Am I so independent that I refuse to ask for help or let others assist me?
- Do I support and defend other members of my family?
- Do I give others the opportunity to share their gifts and talents?
- Do I treat those who wait on me or who work with me with the dignity they deserve as fellow human beings?

TO PRAY FOR ME TO THE LORD OUR GOD
- Do I promise prayers for people and situations and not follow through?
- Do I remember to pray for others in my parish, especially for those who are preparing to receive the sacraments?
- Do I pray for the living and the dead?
Presider: Let us listen on the words of Pope Francis as he calls us to reflect on God's mercy in our lives and see how we have failed to allow that mercy to permeate our being.

Reader 1: God's mercy breaks through the dimension of space and time, inserting everything into the eternal mystery of love. It is as if to say that not only in history, but for all eternity, we will always be under the merciful gaze of the Father. (Misericordiae Vultus 7)

Reader 2: Have I avoided the mercy of God, neglecting prayer and worship? (pause)

Have I listened for God’s voice, looking for signs of God's merciful love and action in the persons and circumstances around me? (pause)

Have I trusted in the mercy of God, or have I left my own unworthiness stand in the way of hope? (short period of silence)

Reader 1: With our eyes fixed on Jesus and his merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity. The mission Jesus received from the Father was that of revealing the mystery of divine love in its fullness. “God is love.” (Misericordiae Vultus 8)

Reader 2: Is my image of God in harmony with the way Jesus describes God? (pause)

Am I open to the mercy of God in my life? (pause)

Am I willing to let go of all my preconceived notions of God and let God transform my mind and heart? (short period of silence)

Reader 1: When faced with sin, God responds with the fullness of mercy. Mercy will always be greater than any sin, and now one can place limits on the love of God who is ever ready to forgive. (Misericordiae Vultus 3)

Reader 2: What stands in the way of my responding fully to the mercy of God in my life? (pause)

What circumstances in my life are most difficult for me now? Can I let God’s mercy into these places? (pause)

Am I allowing God’s merciful love to reach out to others through me? (silence)

Presider: Let us reflect on the areas in our own lives in need of forgiveness so that we can bring them to God’s sacrament of mercy. (longer pause)
RITE OF RECONCILIATION

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SINS

Presider: God who is infinitely merciful pardons all who are repentant and takes away their guilt.
Confident in his goodness,
let us ask him to forgive all our sins
as we confess them with sincerity of heart.

All: I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

Presider: Let us turn to Christ with confidence and ask his mercy.

Minister: You came into the world to seek and save what was lost.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You came to give us life, life in its fullness.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You became the source of salvation for all who obey you.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Once and for all you died for our sins,
the innocent one for the guilty.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: In your mercy free us from the past and enable us to begin a new life of holiness.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Make us a living sign of love for all to see:
people reconciled with you and with each other.
All: Lord, have mercy.
LORD’S PRAYER

Presider: Now, in obedience to Christ himself, let us join in prayer to the Father, asking him to forgive us as we forgive others.

All: Our Father, ...

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Presider: Almighty and eternal God you sent your only-begotten Son to reconcile the world to yourself. Lift from our hearts the oppressive gloom of sin, so that we may celebrate the approaching dawn of Christ’s birth with fitting joy. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confession should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God grant you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.
Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever;
Give thanks to the God of gods,
for his mercy endures forever;
Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who alone does great wonders,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who made the heavens in wisdom,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who spread out the earth upon the waters,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who made the great lights.
for his mercy endures forever;
The sun to rule over the day,
for his mercy endures forever;
The moon and the stars to rule over the night,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who led his people through the wilderness,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who freed us from our foes,
for his mercy endures forever;
Who gives food to all flesh,
for his mercy endures forever;
Give thanks to the God of heaven,
for his mercy endures forever;

Another psalm, hymn, or litany may be prayed in acknowledgment of God’s power and compassion.  See the enclosed music suggestions or use one of the scripture citations below.

Psalm 119: 1, 10-16, 18, 33, 105, 169-170, 174-175  Revelation 15: 3-4
CONCLUDING PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Presider: Lord God,
Creator and ruler of your kingdom of light,
in your great love for this world
you gave up your only Son for our salvation.
His cross has redeemed us,
his death has given us life,
his resurrection has raised us to glory.
Through him we ask you to be always present among your family.
Teach us to be reverent in the presence of your glory;
fill our hearts with faith,
our days with good works,
our lives with your love.
May your truth be on our lips
and your wisdom in all our actions, that we may receive the reward of everlasting life.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

CONCLUDING RITE

BLESSING

Presider: May the Father bless us
for we are his children, born to eternal life.
All: Amen.

Presider: May the Son show us his saving power,
for he died and rose for us.
All: Amen.

Presider: May the Spirit give us his gift of holiness and lead us by the right path, for he dwells in our hearts.
All: Amen.

DISMISSAL

Presider: The Lord has freed you from your sins. Go in peace.
All: Thanks be to God.
Thus says the Lord:
All you who are thirsty,
  come to the water!
You who have no money,
  come, receive grain and eat;
come, without paying and without cost,
  drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread,
  your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well,
  you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully,
  listen, that you may have life.
I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
  the benefits assured to David.
As I made him a witness to the peoples,
  a leader and commander of nations,
so shall you summon a nation you knew not,
  and nations that knew you not shall run to you,
because of the Lord, your God,
  the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you.

Seek the Lord while he may be found,
  call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
  and the wicked man his thoughts;
let him turn to the Lord for mercy;
  to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
  nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
As high as the heavens are above the earth
  so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

For just as from the heavens
  the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 100:1b-2, 3, 4, 5

R: The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is for ever.

Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
serve the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful song.

R: The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is for ever.

Know that the LORD is God;
he made us, his we are;
his people, the flock he tends.

R: The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is for ever.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
his courts with praise;
give thanks to him, bless his name.

R: The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is for ever.

The LORD is good:
his kindness endures forever,
and his faithfulness, to all generations.

R: The Lord is loving and kind: his mercy is for ever.
Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us?
He did not spare his own Son
   but handed him over for us all,
   how will he not also give us everything else along with him?
Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us.
Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
   who also is at the right hand of God,
   who indeed intercedes for us.
What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
   or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
As it is written:

   For your sake we are being slain all the day;
   we are looked upon as sheep to be slaughtered.

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
   nor angels, nor principalities,
   nor present things, nor future things,
   nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
   nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Verse: Come, O Lord, do not delay;
   forgive the sins of your people.
A certain Pharisee invited Jesus to dine with him,
and he entered the Pharisee’s house and reclined at table.
Now there was a sinful woman in the city who learned that he was at table in the house of the Pharisee.
Bringing an alabaster flask of ointment,
she stood behind him at his feet weeping and began to bathe his feet with her tears.
Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the ointment.
When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this he said to himself,
“If this man were a prophet,
he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him,
that she is a sinner.”
Jesus said to him in reply,
“Simon, I have something to say to you.”
“Tell me, teacher,” he said.
“Two people were in debt to a certain creditor;
one owed five hundred days’ wages and the other owed fifty.
Since they were unable to repay the debt, he forgave it for both.
Which of them will love him more?”
Simon said in reply,
“The one, I suppose, whose larger debt was forgiven.”
He said to him, “You have judged rightly.”
Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon,
“Do you see this woman?
When I entered your house, you did not give me water for my feet,
but she has bathed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair.
You did not give me a kiss,
but she has not ceased kissing my feet since the time I entered.
You did not anoint my head with oil,
but she anointed my feet with ointment.
So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven;
while you have shown little love.
But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.”
He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”
The others at table said to themselves,
“Who is this who even forgives sins?”
But he said to the woman,
“Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

SAMPLE PENANCES

Choose one of the following penances as a way of accepting God’s mercy.

- During the next week, spend an hour in prayer for those who are the victims of abuse or neglect. Read Matthew 25: 31-46.

- As a family, prepare a basket of food or toiletries and give it to a family in need.

- Skip a meal at your favorite restaurant. Use the money to purchase a Christmas gift for a person served by a parish organization or local charity.

- Identify a person whom you have offended since your last confession and pray for them each day for a week.

- Think of someone you have been especially uncharitable towards and send a Christmas card with a note of kindness attached to it.

- Work at a soup kitchen or food pantry during Advent for a couple of hours.

- Reflect on the Beatitudes.....find someone who meets one of those needs, such as one who mourns, and send them a note or visit them during Advent.

- Speak a word of affirmation to each member of your household this week. Make an effort to "help carry someone's burden" among your friends or family members.

- Offer to share something you have - or something you're doing - with someone who would appreciate it.

- Take a "prayer time" of ten minutes or so... and ask God if there is something God would like to say to you... and LISTEN.

- Call or write a note to someone who may be lonely or in need of "comfort and joy".

- Gather your family members for a reading of the "Christmas Story" from the Gospel of Matthew or Luke. Discuss what it means to them and to you.

- Include a weekday Mass in your plans during Advent.

- Every morning until Christmas, say a Hail Mary for peace.

- Reach out to a lonely person at school. Invite him or her to sit with you and your friends.

- Prayerfully pray Psalm 51.

- For one whole week, do the dishes or set the table without being asked.

- Give up some leisure time to shovel an elderly neighbor’s driveway.

ABOUT THE FEDERATION OF DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSIONS

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the then Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Our mission remains the same. The members of our Federation continue to serve bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and to your parish. Other publications, including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts, are available at www.fdlc.org.

We also provide opportunities for liturgical formation. Soon, watch for our nationwide workshops on the revised Rite of Celebrating Matrimony and online offerings on Christian Initiation.

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.

We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) for their kind permission to reprint copyrighted texts.
