

REGISTRATION REQUIRED--ONLY A FEW SPACES LEFT!

4th Annual Palliative Care Colloquium

Saturday, April 6, 2019

8am – 12:30pm at the Pastoral Center, Braintree

Registration Fee: $15

Payments can be made using PayPal online or cash/check at the door

Topic: Moral Distress on Both Sides of the Bedrail: Always Wanting to Do “The Right Thing”

Featuring: Joseph D. Stern, MD, a practicing neurosurgeon and author of the memoir: “Grief as My Guide: A Brother’s Loss through a Doctor’s Eyes.”

Mary K. Buss, MD, MPH, a medical oncologist and a palliative medicine specialist at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center

Fran Hauck, M.Ed., LCSW, a Pastoral Associate at Holy Name Parish in West Roxbury with extensive ministerial experience including caring of the seriously ill and dying. Fran also provides chaplaincy services at Brigham & Women’s Hospital.

With 49 million family caregivers currently tending to the needs of their loved ones in the U.S. today, we think it’s important for us to discuss this year’s topic. Please join us for an informative session which concludes with the celebration of Holy Mass with Fr. J. Bryan Hehir.
