ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON

I. INTRODUCTION

The certification policies and procedures for Pastoral Associates in the Archdiocese of Boston are based upon the USCCB document, “Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord” and the National Certification Standards developed by the National Association of Lay Ministry (cf. www.usccb.org/laity/laymin and www.nalm.org)

It is the policy of the Archdiocese of Boston that, only those who meet the requirements of these Pastoral Associate Guidelines and who are certified by the Archdiocese of Boston, may call themselves and serve in the ministry as “Pastoral Associates.”

II. MINISTRY OF THE PASTORAL ASSOCIATE

A Pastoral Associate is a non-ordained professional lay ecclesial minister who shares with the pastor or administrator (referred to herein as pastor), the parochial vicar, deacon and other members of the parish pastoral team in the overall care of the parish. He or she is a member of the parish staff, usually full-time, and is accountable to and delegated to serve the parish by the Pastor, who by reason of his ordination receives the power to teach, govern and sanctify the community. The Pastoral Associate is qualified and certified to serve in a generalist’s role. The ministry of the Pastoral Associate is comprehensive, relating to varied aspects of parish life as designated by the Pastor, e.g., liturgy, faith formation and development, administration, pastoral care, or social outreach. The designated responsibilities of the Pastoral Associate are dependent upon the needs of the parish, the gifts of the Pastoral Associate and the gifts of the other members of the parish staff. To qualify for the role of Pastoral Associate, the Archdiocese requires that each individual be registered and certified by the Archdiocese of Boston.

III. CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY

The Pastoral Associate must be a practicing Roman Catholic in good standing. He or she is knowledgeable in the exercise of parish ministry and enjoys a good reputation as a lay ecclesial minister who fosters communion. All applicants to the role of a Pastoral Associate must meet the basic requirements of a lay ecclesial minister, as these are articulated in the latest edition of *Co-Workers in the Vineyard*¹. Indeed, given the importance of the role of the Pastoral Associate, one would expect more than meeting a minimum requirement.

There are four areas of formation – human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral – that provide the framework for the call and ministry of a Pastoral Associate. Therefore, Pastoral Associates need:

¹ “Lay persons with a call to lay ecclesial ministry possess certain dispositions, which are further developed during the formal preparation process.” (Co-Workers in the Vineyard, p.30). For a list of these dispositions, cf. Appendix C of this text.

- Human qualities critical to the development of a pastoral leadership style of service, compassion, and delegated responsibility for the parish, vicariate and Archdiocese.
- A spirituality and practice of prayer, personal and communal, contemplative and liturgical that grounds one's ministry in God's Trinitarian life.
- Advanced knowledge in theological and pastoral studies, along with intellectual skills to use it effectively across the various cultures that make up the local church.
- The practical pastoral abilities, especially for coordination, called for in their particular ministry.

Ongoing formation in all four areas of formation – human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral – is a significant and regular ministerial responsibility for all Pastoral Associates. It is the obligation of the Archdiocese to make provision for the ongoing formation of Pastoral Associates across the spectrum and course of their careers.

A. APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATION

A person who is applying for the position of Pastoral Associate must first contact the Archdiocesan Office of Pastoral Planning for an Application Packet for certification. Applications will be received in the spring and certification provided in the fall of each year.

1. The Application Packet requires that the following be returned:

- a. A Certification Application Form (Appendix A).
- b. A long form Baptismal Certificate from the parish of baptism.
- c. Transcript of graduate studies
- d. Three letters of reference.
- e. A letter from one's home pastor.
- f. If presently or previously employed by a parish, a letter from each pastor currently serving in ministry.
- g. A letter from the regional bishop.

Upon completion and return of the application packet to the Office of Pastoral Planning, an interview will be arranged.

B. DECISION ON CERTIFICATION

The decision regarding the certification of a Pastoral Associate rests with the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership. The Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership consults with the Certification Committee.

Certification is granted for a period of five (5) years. For certification to be renewed, a person certified as a Pastoral Associate is required to participate in ongoing formation programs according to policies and practices of the Secretariat for Parish Life and Leadership.

A provisional certification with notation will be granted when an applicant is considered to possess the pastoral skills and qualities necessary but is lacking in some area of the academic and/or pastoral formation required for the position. The notation will be reviewed periodically, as indicated at the time of certification. The provisional certification will be withdrawn if the candidate has not met the required standards within two (2) years of application.

If certification is denied, the individual may appeal to a review board convened by the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership on an ad hoc basis. Members of that review board may include no more than three persons from the following list: Director of the Office for Clergy Personnel, Pastoral Associates, a permanent deacon, the Director of the Master of Arts in Ministry Program and the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership. The decision of the review board will be final, with due respect to the provisions of canon law.

C. SPECIAL CERTIFICATION

Special certification is required for certain areas of responsibility. This includes such areas as preparation of canonical forms in connection with marriage or annulments. These specific certifications and others are granted upon completion of certification procedures and programs approved by the appropriate Archdiocesan office.

CERTIFICATION PROCEDURE

I. INTERVIEW

After receipt of all required forms and letters, the Office of Pastoral Planning will convene a Certification Committee of at least one Pastoral Associate and two other committee members to interview candidates for certification as Pastoral Associates in the Archdiocese.

II. CERTIFICATION DECISION

A. The Certification Committee, after reviewing the completed Application Packet, references and interview material, will make a recommendation to the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership regarding certification.

III. PASTORAL ASSOCIATE FILE

- A. A certification file will be established in the Secretariat for Parish Life and Leadership for each Pastoral Associate who is granted certification.

In keeping with the Pastoral Associate Guidelines concerning continuing formation (II.C.), each Pastoral Associate will be required to submit yearly updated information regarding courses taken, continuing education units and related experiences to the Office of Pastoral Planning. The Office of Pastoral Planning will remind Pastoral Associates of this requirement in June of each year by email or mail if necessary. IV. PASTORAL ASSOCIATE CERTIFICATION RENEWAL

A. Eligibility

Failure to renew one's certification may be cause for a reassessment of employment as a Pastoral Associate in the Archdiocese.
2. An individual who has let his or her certification expire must reapply for certification and follow normal application procedures. An individual who is presently or has been previously certified and terminated from a Pastoral Associate or lay ecclesial ministry position will participate in a certification interview (cf. Section II of this section). Special circumstances will be evaluated and proper procedures determined by the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership.

2. The Certification Committee, after reviewing the completed application packet, will make a recommendation to the Secretary for Parish Life and Leadership.
3. The certification renewal decision will consist of one of the following:
 - a. Certification is renewed for five (5) years.
 - b. Certification is denied.
 - c. Provisional certification renewal is granted with a notation for a determined period of time.
4. An individual may appeal the decision regarding certification renewal to a review board (See Section V.B. Certification Decision).
